Evangelism:

Stewardship: Christine reported that we're receiving offerings via mail, Pay Pal & in the offering plate.

Worship: Weather permitting, the service on 9/11 will be outdoors, with the special meeting, potluck dinner & possibly a mission with the Orphan Grain Train to follow.

Youth: Still no bill from Red Willow Bible Camp. Beth will follow up.

Technology: Jim requested some recent photos to update the church website.

Property: Jim Steele, Dennis Leppert & a few others pitched in to fill the hole in the grass near the south entrance. It was caused from a rotted tree root. There's a broken window handle in the entry. Christine will ask Solinger Lumber if they can replace it. Beth will call Hill's in Oakes about getting an estimate on blinds for the entry doors.

Fellowship: Potluck following the special meeting on 9/11 was discussed. Beth will call the Orphan Grain Train to ask if we could help with a mission after the meal. Changing the name "Rally Sunday" to "Harvest Sunday" was considered.

Unfinished Old Business: The special meeting is scheduled for 9/11. Christine volunteered to write up a notice to put in the bulletins two weeks prior. There are still no new estimates for the sanctuary lighting. Beth will keep trying to get ahold of electricians for a quote. The Gackles still plan to have their children baptized.

New Business: Council discussed holding Awana at ORLC on Wednesdays beginning in October, & then maybe starting up with Sunday school this winter. The Luther League kids could possibly help out with Awana. A couple from a church in Lehr is looking for their baptismal records. Jamie will ask Lori Callahan if she knows anything about it. Harlan Meansma expressed interest in joining ORLC. He was in charge of mowing at his last church & offered to help here. We received some hail insurance money & the north side will need shingling next summer. The south side is still ok. Beth will talk to Lucas Madcke, Christine will talk to Jason Mathern & Jamie will talk to Tyler Lagodinski & ask all for quotes. A new class of confirmation students will start up this fall. Beth will let Pastor Jordan how many students to expect. Pastor Jordan will talk to Tina & Jeremy Nitschke to set a date for Jacob's confirmation.
